

Heavy Equipment Mechanic/Service Tech Position: Full-Time

About- Reiner Contracting, Inc is a contractor performing aggregate operations, concrete/bituminous sawing, and sand blowing. Located in Hutchinson, MN. We are an EOE Employer. Looking for a mechanic/diesel/technician to join our team.

Key Responsibilities of Heavy Equipment Mechanic/Service Tech, but not limited to:

- Performing General maintenance on all types of Aggregate equipment and vehicles
- Maintenance duties include brakes, belts, hoses, wiring, oil changes, screens and working on all aggregate equipment.
- Tracking maintenance schedules on all vehicles and trucks/tractors/trailers/heavy equipment.
- Performing DOT Inspections on all required equipment
- Order and track parts
- Organize and manage outsourced repair work
- Be responsible for communicating and maintaining the cleanliness and operator maintenance instructions for each vehicle and piece of equipment.
- Oversee, delegate and prioritize equipment maintenance and repairs

Requirements needed for Heavy Equipment Mechanic/Service Technician

- Previous experience as a service technician/automotive maintenance or diesel mechanic.
- Strong mechanical aptitude and ability to perform heavy lifting of 60 lbs
- Knowledge of welding is a plus
- Excellent communication skills
- Excellent time management and organizational skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Strong problem-solving and troubleshooting skills
- Attention to detail
- Accountability and dependability
- Previous work as a diesel technician is an advantage but not a requirement

Shop location is in Hutchinson. However aggregate pits are located throughout multiple counties from main office and within 40 miles. Candidate must live within 45 min of the main office location.

Note: This job description is not intended to be all-inclusive. The employee may perform other related duties as negotiated to meet the ongoing needs of the organization.

Working Conditions:

- Monday-Friday

- Overtime is required
- Work is performed in an outdoor setting at times which could include inclement weather, heat, cold, humidity.
- Must be physically able to repetitively lift and carry at least 60 lbs on a regular basis.
- Use of PPE is required.

Additional Benefits for Mechanic/Service Tech:

- Paid Time Off
- 401K w Match
- Health Insurance 100% Company Paid
- Tool Allowance

Education Needed for Mechanic/Service Tech:

- High School Diploma or G.E.D.
- D.O.T Certification is required or able to acquire
- Class A license or able to acquire.
- Previous mechanic education/training experience

Salary: $32.00 - $42.00 per hour

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- Continuing education credits
- Health insurance
- Paid training
- Tuition reimbursement
- Experience level: